

The Supplement Psalter

Psalm 40

Supplement p. 45; Accompaniment for Refrain p. 42

Chant by Matthew Camidge (1758-1844)

Refrain: O Lord, my God, many are the wonders you have done.

I waited patiently for the LORD; he turned to me and heard my cry.

Do not withhold your mercy from me, O LORD; may your love and your truth always protect me.

For troubles without number surround me; my sins have overtaken me, and I cannot see.

They are more than the hairs of my head, and my heart fails within me.

Be pleased, O LORD, to save me; O LORD, come quickly to help me.

Refrain: O Lord, my God, many are the wonders you have done.

I waited patiently for the LORD; he turned to me and heard my cry.

He put a new song in my mouth, a hymn of praise to our God.

Many will see and fear and put their trust in the LORD.

Blessed is the man who makes the LORD his trust, who does not look to the proud, to those who turn a - side to false gods.

Many, O LORD my God, are the wonders you have done.

The things you planned for us no one can re - count to you;

were I to speak and tell of them, they would be too man - y to de - clare.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Ho - ly Spir - it, as it was in the be - gin - ning, is now, and will be for - ev - er. A - men.

Refrain: O Lord, my God, many are the wonders you have done.
