

CW Psalm 98

Hymnal p. 103; Accompaniment p. 84

Chant by Charles V. Stanford (1852-1924)

Refrain: Sing to the Lord a new song, for he has done marvelous things.

Sing to the Lord a new song, for he has done marvelous things.

The first line of the refrain is written on two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat) and a common time signature. The lower staff is in bass clef with the same key signature and time signature. The melody consists of quarter and eighth notes, while the accompaniment is primarily chords.

The Lord has made his sal - va - tion known

The second line of the refrain continues on two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of two flats and a common time signature. The lower staff is in bass clef with the same key signature and time signature. The melody consists of quarter and eighth notes, while the accompaniment is primarily chords.

and revealed his righteousness to the na - tions.

The third line of the refrain continues on two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of two flats and a common time signature. The lower staff is in bass clef with the same key signature and time signature. The melody consists of quarter and eighth notes, while the accompaniment is primarily chords.

He has remembered his love and faithfulness to the house of Is - ra - el;

all the ends of earth have seen the sal - va - tion of our God.

Refrain: Sing to the Lord a new song, for he has done marvelous things.

Shout for joy to the Lord all the earth, burst into jubilant song with mu - sic;

make music to the Lord with the harp, with the harp and the sound of sing - ing.

Shout for joy before the Lord, the King,

The first system of musical notation consists of a treble and bass staff. The treble staff has a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat) and a common time signature. The melody is written in a simple, hymn-like style with quarter and half notes. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes.

He will judge the world in righteousness and the peoples with eq - ui - ty.

The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. The treble staff features a series of chords and single notes, while the bass staff provides a steady accompaniment with chords and a few moving lines.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Ho - ly Spir - it, as it was in the be - gin - ning, is now, and will be for - ev - er. A - men.

The third system continues the melody and accompaniment. The treble staff features a series of chords and single notes, while the bass staff provides a steady accompaniment with chords and a few moving lines.

The fourth system concludes the melody and accompaniment. The treble staff features a series of chords and single notes, while the bass staff provides a steady accompaniment with chords and a few moving lines.

Refrain: Sing to the Lord a new song, for he has done marvelous things.
