

CW Psalm 92

of the Reformation Psalter

Hymnal p. 101; Acompaniment p. 82

Chant by C. Hubert Parry (1848-1918)

Refrain: Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

$\text{♩} = 100$

How great are your works, O Lord, how profound your thoughts!

The senseless man does not know, fools do not understand,

that though the wicked spring up like grass and all evil - do - ers flour - ish,

they will be for - ever de - stroyed.

But you, O Lord, are ex - alted for - ev - er.

Refrain: Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

The righteous will flourish like a palm tree,

they will flourish in the courts of our God.

They will still bear fruit in old age, they will stay fresh and green, proclaiming, "The Lord is up - right;

he is my rock, and there is no wicked - ness in him."

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Ho - ly Spir - it,

The first system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower staff is in bass clef. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The melody is written in the upper staff, and the accompaniment is in the lower staff. The lyrics are placed between the two staves.

as it was in the be - gin - ning, is now, and will be for - ev - er. A - men.

The second system of musical notation also consists of two staves in the same key signature and clefs as the first system. The melody continues in the upper staff, and the accompaniment is in the lower staff. The lyrics are placed between the two staves.

Refrain: Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.
