11/29/2015	Advent 1	Blue	The season of Advent is a season of preparation. Advent (Latin for "coming") helps us prepare for the high festival of Christmas much like Lent helps us prepare for Easter. The roots of Advent go back all the way to the 400's in France and Italy. The length of Advent was fixed at four weeks by about 600 A.D. There are three major themes to Advent: 1) the coming of Jesus into the flesh at Christmas, 2) the coming of our Lord in his Word, and 3) the coming of our Lord at the end of time. Advent is a time of repentance, but also a season of joy-filled anticipation. (Christian Worship: Manual, p. 375)		Blessed is the King Who Comes in the Name of the Lord	Happy New Year! Different cultures celebrate their New Year's Celebration in their own way. The Church of olay with much of the world, commemorating the beginning of the church year on the first Sunday in Advent. This new beginning reminds us of the newness of life that is ours through faith in Jesus. The Church Year begins with the confession and promise that we will be judged by Christ at the end of time. Why is this important to remember? As we prepare for Christmas, the Church reminds us through the fact that the baby in the crib is much more than another cute kid. He is my God, my Savior, and my judge. As God works through His Word and Sacraments, we are prepared to welcome Him through our faith in His promises and His return on Judgment Day to take us home. The Lord is come! Jesus comes into a world that is troubled, out-of-control, and filled with fear. His birth—the fulfillment of God's promise to send a Savior—melts angels sing and shepherds rejoice. Christmas is a time of joy that is unchanged from when Christ first came to earth. But we rejoice with the angels and shepherds because our loving Father God continues to send the Savior Jesus to us in, with, and under the preaching of His Word and Sacraments. He is in charge. We welcome all members, friends, prospective guests, and visitors to worship this evening. The angels brought good news of great joy to the shepherds. The Savior is born! We have heard the truth of Christ's birth so many times that we sometimes forget the meaning of it. On Christmas Eve we celebrate the source of our Christian faith—God Himself comes to us to save us by grace. And He comes not as a king or a hero. He comes as a fragile, human baby—as one of us. He comes not as one who is above us but one loving who shows you how you might achieve salvation, but only if you are good enough, smart enough, or strong enough. He comes to us as the Good News that God Himself comes to us as one of us. He comes not so that we can save ourselves, but to save us by grace through faith in the one named Jesus, Emmanuel, the Prince of Peace. We now spend twelve days praising God the Father for the gift of his Incarnate Son. The festival of Christmas culminates with a festival worship service on January 6th, celebrating the Epiphany of Our Lord. 1/6/2016	Epiphany	White	MDO produces festival service and bulletin Holy Communion What Is The Festival of the Epiphany? The word epiphany comes from a Greek word meaning "to show forth," referring to the appearance of Christ as the Savior (1Tisk 3:4). Curiously, the celebration of Epiphany is actually more ancient than the celebration of Christmas. Epiphany was the first festival of the church and is the late 100's A.D. In the Western Church (at which Lutheranism is a part), the Festival of the Epiphany was established in the 4th century A.D. as a feast day to worship the infant King. The twelve days between Christmas and Epiphany have come to be known as "the twelve days of Christmas."	225 printed	Wise Men Still Seek Him	After Easter, the celebration of the Epiphany of Our Lord is certainly the oldest of the festivals that highlight the life and ministry of Jesus. While the Feast of the Nativity (Christmas) on December 25, January 6, are somewhat obscure, the celebration has always focused on the ministry of Jesus. In some parts of the Christian world the Savior's baptism was the appointed focus; in other regions the adoration of the Magi was the center of the day. The tradition that has endured over the centuries is the remembrance of the coming of the Magi from the east, and in some places of the Christian world January 6 is still referred to as "Christmas for the Gentiles." There is a first for everything	Good morning and welcome to worship. The Season of Epiphany is the season of "revelation." (Epiphany literally means "to show forth.") Gradually, yet most convincingly, Jesus reveals himself to be who he really is! Eyes of faith heard a word of revelation last week at Jesus' baptism. He is God the Son in whom God the Father is well pleased. Ears of faith received that revelation as Jesus performs his first miracle - turning water into wine. He revealed his glory to his disciples. 1/24/2016	Epiphany 3 Mercy Ministry Sunday	Green	Welcome to worship. Today is Mercy Ministry Sunday at Trinity. Mercy ministry is a ministry that is special to any church. The Lord has blessed us with a special ministry of any sort because this is what family is all about and our spiritual family is that special to us. But why and how do we do this? This morning we are going to examine our motivation for all that we do and say as Christians as we look at the Word of God and examine what the Lord has revealed to His followers. If we can understand why we have a mercy ministry then getting involved in it is easy. But without the right motivation mercy ministry is difficult and we will not receive the blessings that God has for anything in return. It comes down to the right kind of love. May our service today help you see why we do mercy ministry.	275	Lord, Let Your Mercy Be On Us			Gates (6/1)	John 13:34-35 "Share Christ's Love with Everyone"						Gradea 6-8 at Christ-Peeaukee		#10 Darren Shuff				Kyrie and Gloria (with Cantor) from Creation Setting	Kyrie and Gloria (with Cantor) from Creation Setting	Kyrie and Gloria (with Cantor) from Creation Setting			Leviticus 19:9-16 James 2:14-26 Luke 6:20-36	Lord God, your Son came among us to serve and not to be served. In our Lutheran Churches, Transfiguration Sunday is celebrated on the Sunday before Lent. There is a reason for this. It is to remind us that Jesus gave a glimpse of his GLORY with his transfiguration on the mountain top. But note well: Jesus didn't remain in glory on the mountain! He humbly walked down the mountain to set out for Jerusalem, for Calvary, for the cross. He did not cling to his "glimpse of glory" teaches us that Jesus didn't endure the cross because he was forced to. He endured the cross because he was moved to. Here he chose to! 2/21/2016	TLS Sunday	Purple	Holy Communion. ONE BULLETIN FOR ENTIRE WEEKEND AC prepares sermon		Little Ones to Him Belong	This weekend we celebrate God's blessings to us through the Christian day school. Our school family is the single-largest ministry we support as a family of believers. Since 1892, Trinity Lutheran School has partnered with Christian parents to fulfill their God-given role, "bringing up their children in the discipline and instruction of the Lord" (Ephesians 6:4). We assist parents by nurturing children in the Christian faith, guiding them in Christian living, and providing them with the knowledge and skills for life's gifts. We prepare children to be lights in a sin-filled world. We convey to children a firm conviction that eternal life with God is theirs through faith in Jesus Christ. Even if you do not have a child or grandchild enrolled in TLS, your support at school, TLS is still a part of your life. Why? Because Jesus commanded his people to go out into the world "TEACHING them to obey everything I have commanded you." (Matthew 28:20). Teaching the Word is the heart and soul of Trinity Lutheran School. May Jesus continue to bless the teaching that takes place every Monday-Friday at Trinity Lutheran School. He is teaching our leadership to draw us to himself - for his mercy, his forgiveness, his protection. In him, we have REAL security. The hymn sings it best: "On Christ, the solid rock, I stand. The prodigal son's story is a story with a sobering truth: the things of the world cannot buy lasting happiness, let alone genuine love. Thankfully, the story of the prodigal son is asking to be taken in as a hired hand. Right then and there, the son experienced true love! The father forgave his son, replaced all his return, and restored him to his place in the family. We are the son in the parable. We are prodigals by our sinful flesh. Confused and foolish, oft' we've strayed, yet God is faithful and just and forgives our sin! 3/20/2016	Palm Sunday	Purple	NO SATURDAY SERVICE Holy Communion celebrated MDD produces bulletin and festival liturgy	375 - PRINTED	Behold, Behold Your King!	Bittersweet. If something is literally bittersweet, it tastes both bitter and sweet at the same time—like a piece of dark chocolate. Different events can be bittersweet too—circumstances that are both happy and sad, or mixed with both joy and pain. Sunday is bittersweet. As we picture Jesus riding into Jerusalem that first Palm Sunday, we don't know whether to cry or laugh. Does Jesus enter the city in lowliness or pomp? Is He coming to bow or to conquer? Is He coming to live or to die? Yes, it is bittersweet: yes. Jesus comes in both of these ways and for both of these reasons. As we enter Holy Week, we enter bittersweet days: the bittersweetness of Palm Sunday's humility, the bittersweetness of Maundy Thursday's betrayal, and the bitterness of Good Friday's death-will undoubtedly give way to the sweetness of Easter Sunday's resurrection and life! 3/24/2016	Maundy Thursday (10:30am/7:00pm)	Purple	AC prepares liturgy and bulletin / MDD proofs Regarding the term "Maundy Thursday" The name for this day comes from the Latin word "mandatum," meaning "commandment". It refers to the "new commandment" Jesus gave to his disciples on this day. The first is "Love one another," and the second is "Do this in remembrance of me." In the early church, Maundy Thursday was also the day on which those who had fallen away from the Church were restored to full fellowship with other believers after having observed the 40-day penitential season of Lent. Today we are reminded of the reconciliation we have because of Christ's body and blood given for the forgiveness of our sins, and the example of self-giving love shown by our Lord as He washed the feet of His disciples.	300 - PRINTED		The name for this day comes from the Latin word "mandatum", meaning "commandment". There is no invocation or benediction. The name may originally have been "Holy Friday," but it came to be called "Good" because of the good gifts Christ won for us on this day. Good Friday is not observed as a funeral for Jesus, but as a time of solemn worship and restrained joy and praise for the redemption the Lord Jesus accomplished for us on the cross. In keeping with this character, music is kept to a minimum, though not silenced. Elaborate words of greeting are omitted. The Lord's Supper has not been stripped on Holy Thursday. The service of Tenebrae (meaning "darkness") consists of the chanting of Psalms and the Lamentations. Tenebrae occurred early in the morning at the Offices of Matins and Lauds on all three days of the Triduum. In recent times, the service has been observed only on the evening of Good Friday. From the moment of Pentecost (Acts 2), "tongues of fire appearing over the face of the waters" (Genesis 1:2), God has come down to this favored planet many times and in many ways. On Pentecost, God the Holy Spirit came down to earth in a most dramatic way. Through the Pentecost miracle, the Spirit of Jesus had made to His disciples. That blessed Spirit continues to come among God's people, calling, gathering, enlightening, and sanctifying them. As we gather, we witness to that Spirit at work among and through us. Today we hear about the prophets of true faith. It is easy to see whom the is going well. How will our faith do when life itself hangs in the balance? The thought of death - ours and our loved ones - can quickly expose the shallowness of our spiritual faith. In this, today, the Church prays: Be gracious to us in our weakness and give us strength! 6/12/2016	Pentecost 4	Green	MOD prepares the liturgy and bulletin	160 (Sat/Mon); 250 (Sun)	The Repentant Life	The path from spiritual death to life begins not with our repentance but with God's repentance for us. In His personal guilt, God's love is clear and the touch stops with each of us. We all have fallen short of fulfilling God's holy will. Through genuine sorrow over our sin (contrition) and repentance (turning to God for forgiveness), we are led to confess our sins and to receive the good news of his forgiveness. Jesus' way of dealing with sinners turns the world's understanding upside down. Jesus welcomes and God's Gospel gives home forgiven – a daughter of the heavenly Father. The "lively" shirtless remains a self-righteous son of hell. May Jesus bless each of us with his gifts of godly sorrow and repentance. 6/26/2016	Pentecost 6 The Presentation of the Augsburg Confession	White	MOD prepares festival liturgy and bulletin	275	We Believe, Teach, and Confess	This weekend we observe the commemoration of the "Presentation of the Augsburg Confession." The Lutheran Church is an evangelical church because it proclaims the Gospel, the Good News, Word of God incarnate. Jesus teaches his people to "acknowledge him before men" (Matthew 10:34). Jesus teaches that "with the heart one believes and the mouth, Jesus is Lord, and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you will be saved." The Augsburg Confession serves as a clear testimony to the great truths of the biblical, Lutheran faith: grace alone, faith alone, Scripture alone. Because the Augsburg Confession is a clear summary of the Bible's teaching, all of our congregation's pastors and teachers take oath to publicly preach and teach this confession's content to God's people. The Augsburg Confession helps us to confess what the Bible teaches, so that we believe, teach, and confess to be the true and universal teachings of the Christian Church. Today we give thanks to Almighty God for such great a gift in the Augsburg Confession! How can we follow him more faithfully? How can we show our love to him more completely? The answer is as close to you as the person sitting next to you in the pew! God commands us to love our neighbor. Think of it: Christians are called to be a people who love their enemies and pray for their persecutors (Matt. 5:44). Christians are called to be a stranger in the pew - or the neighbor next door - will be pure joy! By faith, even though they had their reservations about God, Noah recognized when God blessed them with a work in their old age. By faith, Abel honored God with his sacrifice, and God did not abandon him when he was murdered by his own brother. By faith, Enoch lived a righteous life before God, and God took him, taking Enoch to Himself. By faith, Noah built the ark when it seemed odd to do so. It is not only our faith ancestors of long ago who exhort by faith. Parents, Sunday School teachers, pastors, grandparent or another faith mentor who walked by faith and so inspired us to do the same. It is also not only those who have gone before us who walk by faith. We, too, walk by faith because we do not always understand where God is leading, nor do we always see the path clearly. Yet, when we walk by faith in the promises of God in Jesus Christ, we, too, are blessed and become part of God's faithful people. Many of us were brought up being told, "Don't be a follower!" There is wise truth to that in regards to choices we make, especially as youth. But the Lord turns that idea upside down for all people of faith. He says, "Follow me!" Not because it is the following out of peer pressure or compulsion, but following where we know we are led to life, hope, and peace. Only the Spirit working in the Word would call Elijah to leave on following him and would give assurance that in his following, the Lord would be present. In freedom from sin, we are able to follow the Lord in all confidence and in the power of the Spirit, who gives the faith and courage call to follow him. Even as it can bring change to a lifestyle, it is a following filled with lasting promise and eternal blessings. As we follow Jesus, we know that he leads us besides quiet waters and restores our souls. He leads us in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Sadly, the increase of possessions has come with an increase in problems in relationships. For many, the quest for more, More, MORE has become non-sensical. We are simply stewards of God's gifts. We cannot be content with the gifts, but are to look to Himself. By faith, Noah built the ark when it seemed odd to do so. It is not only our faith ancestors of long ago who exhort by faith. Parents, Sunday School teachers, pastors, grandparent or another faith mentor who walked by faith and so inspired us to do the same. It is also not only those who have gone before us who walk by faith. We, too, walk by faith because we do not always understand where God is leading, nor do we always see the path clearly. Yet, when we walk by faith in the promises of God in Jesus Christ, we, too, are blessed and become part of God's faithful people. Each Christian therefore may be glad and build on this foundation. Your grace alone, dear Lord, I plead. Your death is now my life indeed. For all my sins you did atone. Your righteousness Worship (587:5). The words of this well-loved hymn remind us that our justification — our being made right with God — is entirely a matter of God's free, abundance of mercy. Even when sin is at its worst, the mercy of God is more powerful. Knowing that we are justified by His triumphant grace shapes our prayers and enlivens our praises. In today's Gospel lesson (Luke 19:1-10), Jesus encounters Zacchaeus, whose house the Lord came to visit. It is not merely a vividly told story; it is the story of salvation that came to the house — and whose salvation? Zacchaeus' or his? Indeed, the answer is anything but that. Tracing our heritage back to Martin Luther's posting of the Ninety-Five theses on October 31, 1517, we join with Christians throughout the world to thank Him for saving us by His grace alone through faith in our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. The precious Gospel of Christ's life, death, and resurrection is the central truth of the Christian faith, and it is our privilege to set us free from sin as we cling to Christ by faith. May the Lord bless us today as we worship Him and abide in His life-changing Word! "Lord, *Keep us steadfast in Your Word!"	John Mattek	Gates - 4/1	Romans 3:21-28 "We are Saved by Faith Alone" (18:35)	Mark Davidson	Mark Davidson		Mixed Choir, Royal Brass, (Sat) Handbell Choir Trombone: Michael Wenn, Jon Laabs Timpani - Eric Steen No school 27-28	(Set/Mon) Kathy Gates	(5:30) Handbell Choir (Offering) "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God" by Carrie Mumblad			(Before Opening Hymn on Sun) "Introit for Reformation" by Carl Eggert (Anthem after the Holy Gospel) "You Shall Go Out with Joy" by David Edmonds (Hymn of the Day) "Salvation Unto Us Has Come" by William Braun (Closing Hymn) "Only Through Faith" by Nancy Raabe, Brad Hall		Mass of Creation	Mass of Creation	Mass of Creation		Revelation 14:6-7; Romans 3:19-26; John 8:31-36	Almighty God, through the light of Your Word You led Your blessed Reformers, you caused the light of the gospel to shine forth anew that they might faithfully defend it against all enemies and joyfully proclaim it to the salvation of people everywhere to the glory of your mercy; through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. 11/6/2016	Festival of All Saints	White	Holy Communion MDO produces bulletin and festival liturgy	300	Sing with All the Saints in Glory	When we think of saints, we likely picture well-known individuals who have served the Christian Church throughout the years. Familiar names from the pages of Scripture come to mind such as Peter, John, and Paul - the type of people we name churches after. Perhaps this is rightly so. After all, these men of God left behind a tremendously rich and powerful ways. On All Saints' Day, however—the festival we celebrate today—we also give thanks to God for the countless, faithful, unnamed men and Christian men and women whose names may not be known to the world but are known to us. We remember the names of mothers and fathers, friends and family, and fellow congregation members who have gone before us through word and deed. We take time to rejoice that they are now in the nearer presence of the crucified and risen Savior they served while among us. 11/13/2016	Martin Luther Commemoration (Official start of Reformation 500 year- long worship festivities, 2016-2017)	Red	MDO produces bulletin and festival liturgy	300	Remember Your Leaders	In our nation, we celebrate the birthdays of people who have significantly impacted us - Washington, Lincoln, etc. In the Church, we do the same. Why? Because Scripture encourages us to remember those who have served the Lord well. "Remember your leaders (Hebrews 13:7). Dr. Martin Luther is one such figure. His reformation of the church literally changed world history. 500 years later, we're still talking about it! But if you had been in the little town of Eisleben, Germany on November 10, 1483, you probably wouldn't have even noticed his birth. He was a poor miner's son. But God often uses ordinary people to do extraordinary things! God would use this humble man to stand before the most powerful people of his day to proclaim that we are "justified by faith apart from works of the law" (Romans 3: 28). Luther in time came to be known as the "third Elijah," one who proclaimed the truth of God's Word alone, to the end which all truth and life, but focus only on Jesus. We give thanks to God for Luther's faithful service. We give thanks, even more, for the timeless truth that we are justified by grace through faith because of Christ. This Sunday, officially marks the beginning of the year-long celebration, commemorating the 500th Anniversary of the Reformation. Throughout the year, we will be using the Reformation theme in worship hymns, prayers, and sermon segments that were written by Martin Luther. As confessional Lutherans, we will be proclaiming the glorious truths of Jesus Christ and his redeeming work to save us from sin, death, and the devil! 11/20/2016	Christ the King	White	Holy Communion MDO produces bulletin and festival liturgy	300	Crown Him King!	The Last Sunday of the Church Year has also been called "Christ the King Sunday". But as we look at today's Holy Gospel, Jesus doesn't seem very regal or royal from the cross. Pilate mocks Jesus with the inscription "THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS." Jesus is surrounded by shame, suffering, and bloody. Yet, Jesus is King—even from the cross. Going to the cross, Jesus is remarkably in control, warning the daughters of Jerusalem, praying, "Father, forgive them," and extending compassion to the criminal. We are blessed that we have been notice of Jesus' kingship because he pleads, "Remember me when you come into your kingdom" (Luke 23:42). And so we pray: Crucified King Jesus, remember us, and keep us in the faith until you return to reign.
