

Church Architecture: Worship in the New Seminary Chapel

*The photos below highlight the renovation of the Seminary Chapel.

Blend of old and new

The sleek new interior complements the older, more European-influenced exterior.

It's so bright in here!

The large, clear windows frame views of God's handiwork outside. The ever-changing landscape reminds us of our creator and preserving God.

Where are the symbols?

Contemporary thought in liturgical church design contends that the focus of worship ought to be on Word, Baptism, Meal, and the people gathered around them.
